

Newborn Blood Gas Interpretation

Course Description: This module reviews the steps in rapid blood-gas interpretation, and uses a newborn case scenario to test student understanding of the material.

Course Objectives:

- Describe the four steps in basic blood-gas interpretation
- Perform basic blood-gas interpretation based on these steps
- Determine at what level a patient is compensating, based on blood-gas values